ORDER SETTING DEADLINE TO FILE A RENEWED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SERVE A THIRD-PARTY SUBPOENA

In each of the above-captioned cases, an order denied Malibu Media's request for leave to serve a third-party subpoena on the Internet service provider that assigned the respective defendants' IP addresses according to a database maintained at maxmind.com without prejudice to a renewed motion that more completely addressed the accuracy of that database.

Malibu Media shall have until JANUARY 19, AT NOON, to file its renewed motions in each case. If such a motion is timely filed and granted, the deadline to serve the defendant with the summons and complaint will be set as the later of the deadline set by Rule 4(m) or thirty-five days after Malibu Media receives the defendant's identifying information from the Internet service provider. (A similar extension has been granted as a matter of course in all of Malibu Media's cases assigned to the undersigned judge.) Failure to timely file a renewed motion will result in dismissal for lack of prosecution of the respective case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 4, 2017.
